Everyone is encouraged to come for this special time of worship as we take a break from the hectic pace of getting ready for Christmas by pausing to honor our Lord & Savior, Emmanuel!

Invite family, friends, neighbors, & co-workers.

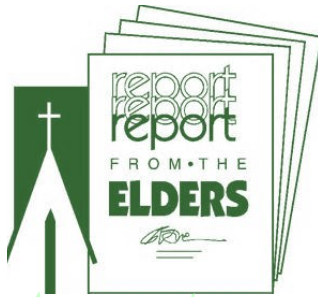

Recently while reading a daily devotion I came across Isaiah 61: 1-2 where Jesus summarized His ministry by reading these two verses in the synagogue and applying it to Himself. This directed me to Luke 4:18

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed"

As believers we have the spiritual authority to do God's will and carry on the ministry of Christ. God works through our prayers and the faith He has commissioned us with to make disciples of all nations.

have because of our Lord Jesus Christ.
1 Thessalonians 1:3*

As we look forward to December events, there is always something special about Advent. I love to hear of traditions that families have centered around Christmas. The Christmas baking, the shopping, the planning, the gift preparations, holiday cards, decorating and tree trimming, caroling, holiday movies, time spent with close friends, preparing for travel, familiar melodies and hymns, snowmen, the list goes on. At Appleton Community, our family has some traditions as well, and with great anticipation of the pleasure of God's people gathering together I await these...

The Women's tea this Saturday, December 1 is always a wonderful opportunity for our women to reach out and share with friends a wonderful gathering, a meal and a message and the anticipation of lives changed.

Each Sunday in the Advent season, it is a treasure to see young families gathered, lighting a candle and sharing truth from God's Word.

The Christmas program is a joy to partake in, with the bright young eyes of sharply dressed, fidgety and sometimes shy children doing their best in the performance of a story old and familiar, yet able to touch our hearts with its own simplicity.

Of course, there's the Christmas Eve service, with the message of hope, an opportunity to invite family and friends, and to be touched in our souls' by the pondering of the depth of His love, in God's precious gift as Jesus entered the world. The music, the message, the candles and Silent Night! How it evokes such an emotional response for our souls. It is well, indeed!

So with each tradition, we are enjoying the rhythms and blessings of the life and the Light that God provides through our faith in Jesus.

Take time to be still in the presence of the Lord this December, resting in the assurance of His never changing promises, and constantly be in thanksgiving—it is well. And thank you all, church family for all you do in sharing Christ's love. Share the Good News!

Some “Reflections” from Pastor Greg

Glory to God in the Highest!

“It’s the most wonderful time of year ...!” These words have a special ring to them because they paint an “old-fashioned” portrait of the “glitter and glamour” of celebrating the Christmas season—one that seems pleasant and peaceful, simple and surreal, brilliant and bright, filled with excitement and enthusiasm.

As we enter this glorious time of year, we find a wide spectrum of perspectives on how people view Christmas, and it appears as if “the most wonderful time of the year” has increasingly become a victim of “something” that’s invaded and changed our culture. Personally I’m convinced that it’s also become hard to define what’s caused this change because it involves a battle between biblical and secular values. At times this conflict becomes so intense that it begins to steal our joy and decrease that sense of hope we find during celebrations like Christmas. But please realize that no one who’s an authentic follower of Christ is without hope, because Jesus came and conquered sin and death at Calvary. We need to fix our hope on Him and on His gracious promises! Let’s spend a few moments thinking about how we can fasten ourselves more tightly to the hope He has given us! (notice Luke 2) ➡

For those of us who might be listening, there are still many comparisons and comments that remind us to “keep Christ in Christmas” and to “avoid the commercialism that competes with the real reason for the season.” There also are plenty of warnings about being too busy and living life at a fast-paced speed that causes more stress and strain than we need.

Most of these are well-intended and actually do provide some healthy advice. However, too often the steps we’re tempted to take in order to implement these suggestions might cause more tension and make life even more complicated and confusing. In today’s world, for these “ideas” to work well, everyone needs to be on the exact same page and even though most of us probably “have received the same memo,” only a few are willing to pause long enough to read it. Cultural change takes time and sooner or later we need to recognize that only God can bring the change that has to happen.

But, what can we do? Is there something that will enable us to “get a grip” on “the most wonderful time of the year?” Here are four simple (simple, but not something extraordinary or unique—but they are biblical) steps that each of us can take:

- (1) Pray in a specific way that God’s glory will be revealed in your Christmas celebration!
- (2) Each day, take a few minutes (as many as possible, but not necessarily a large block of time) to praise God for sending the Savior in such a humble way. Express authentic praise and honor to Him for this remarkable gift.
- (3) Ask God to help you become aware of the opportunities to share the joyful Christmas message with others.
- (4) Like Mary did following the visit from the shepherds, treasure the Truths related to Christ’s birth and allow them to become a wonderful source of joy that influences your daily actions and attitudes.

—from Luke 2:8—20

Now there were shepherds nearby, living out in the field, keeping guard over their flock at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord was shining around them—and they were absolutely terrified. But the angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Listen carefully, for I proclaim to you good news that brings a message of great joy to all people: Today your savior is born in the city of David. He is Christ the Lord; you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a manger.” Suddenly a huge heavenly army appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among people with whom He is pleased!”

When the angels left them and went back to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see what has taken place that the Lord has revealed to us.”

So they hurried to locate Mary and Joseph, and found the baby lying in a manger. When they saw Him, they explained what they had been told about this child, and all who heard it were astonished by what the shepherds said. But Mary treasured up all these words, pondering the meaning of this in her heart.

So the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and witnessed. Everything was exactly what they had been told.

We believe that we are created by God to worship Him. Therefore, we live in worshipful response to God's character and activity. (Psalm 86:11)

We believe that daily prayer is essential in the life of a believer and as such we pray with expectancy knowing that God is actively involved in our world. (Colossians 4:2)

Evangelism

We believe in sharing the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ with honesty and humility. (Matthew 28:19-20)

Fellowship

We believe that accountability, caring and a sense of belonging are essential for each believer to grow in their relationship with Christ. (Philippians 2:1-4)
