

Sermon Notes for Sunday April 19

Life Altering Conversations Always Address the Heart Part 1 Lk 24:13-32

Here's the conversation that addresses the heart and will alter the course of your life ...

1. _____ Heart v13-24
 - a. recognizes my _____
 - i. over recent events v13,14 "Headline News", "What do we do next?"
 - ii. when discussion becomes debate v15a
 - iii. when we're kept from recognizing Jesus v16
 1. How do you deal with unsettling news events?
 - b. pinpoints my _____
 - i. by asking questions v17a
 - ii. He identifies our shock, exhaustion and stage of grief
 - iii. He overcomes our emotional turmoil v18
 - c. uncovers my _____
 - i. by asking a clarifying question v19-21
 - ii. disappointments are challenged by an amazing report v22-24
 1. How many live with misunderstanding & unmet expectations?
2. _____ Heart v25-27 Jesus makes _____
 - a. He challenges the foolishness of our unbelief v25, v19b
 - b. We can't pick and choose which scriptures to believe v25b,26
 - c. He uses the OT scriptures to reveal Himself v27
 - i. How has the good news helped you overcome inertia?

3. _____ Heart v28-32 Jesus captures my _____
 - a. when we _____ our risen Savior Jesus v30,31,16,
 - b. He creates conversational burn by opening our hearts to His word v32
 - i. Do you need a better reason to spend time in God's word? v16,26,31,32
 - c. Invitation- to undergo a massive emotional exchange from despair and lethargy to a burning, passionate heart on fire for Jesus, His word and witness

I cannot be despairing, confused, sad or disappointed when my heart is burning
Once we've experienced Jesus' word burn in our hearts, we will hunger to open His word

Have you felt God's word burning in your heart?

Instead of living in a confused, sad, disappointing world with broken dreams, will you receive Jesus and spend time in His word?

I will spend time in your Word ... reading and listening until it burns in my heart
Commit to Bible reading plan, small group, one on one? Text number below.